HANDSOME HABITS

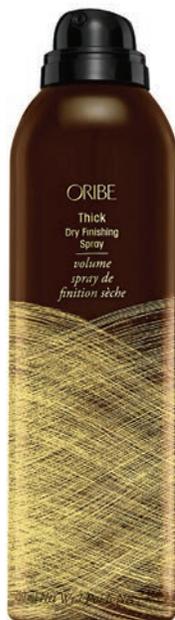

Barclay Butera's schedule is ever-changing. For more than two decades, the interior designer, author and CEO of his namesake firm (barclaybutera.com) has been building an empire that includes three showrooms, a home furnishings line, wallcovering and textile designs, and books showcasing his California aesthetic. Since he's always on the move, he keeps his grooming routine streamlined to ensure he's on time for his multitude of meetings, flights and appearances. At the core of his 45-minute daily ritual: a collection of products that he keeps at all of his homes and in all of his travel bags. And no matter the hour, he never forgets to do two things before turning in for the night: moisturize and pop on his retainer. Here, he shares a few of his favorite things. —Michelle Pulfrey
