A STUDY IN DESIGN

When shopping for furniture and decor to fill a home library, check out these products that any bibliophile would love.

Flip the switch on this STRATTON TABLE LAMP to light up your pages. The gold leaf stand will match nearly anything else placed in the library, as will the neutral white flare shade, $780, at Barclay Butera Interiors. (949-650-8570; barclaybutera.com)

What's a library without a bookcase? The ELEVATE WALNUT 68-INCH BOOKCASE combines classic walnut material with a modern design that will liven up any home library, $1,599, with advance order at Crate & Barrel, South Coast Plaza. (714-825-0060; crateandbarrel.com)

Keep your books from slipping while adding a little adornment to your shelves with this STRIPED MARBLE AND WOOD BOOKEND, featuring interlocking layers of marble and mango wood, $49, at West Elm, South Coast Plaza. (714-662-1960; westelm.com)

Part of Tommy Bahama's Kingston collection, the VICTORIA LEATHER COCKTAIL OTTOMAN is ideal for kicking your feet up or even taking a seat while you flip through your favorite books, from $1,925, with advance order at Tommy Bahama Home, Fashion Island. (949-706-9928; tbfurniture.com) NBM

The ST. JAMES 55-INCH DESK, offered in various antiqued shades, offers the perfect platform for a reading lamp, a small box housing a card catalog or a surface on which to do some writing of your own, $1,850, with advance order at Restoration Hardware, Fashion Island.
