Happy Holidays from Park City, Utah!

BY CHRISTINE PHILLIPS FOR BARCLAY BUTERA INTERIORS | PHOTOS BY LEXINGTON HOME BRANDS

Heading into the holiday season, nothing inspires quite like the magic and rustic-elegance of Park City, Utah. For decades, Barclay has called this winter wonderland his second home; a place where he can refresh, relax and unwind from the rigors of life in the design business. From the Sundance Film Festival, to the powder-laden slopes, and especially from his own personal design showroom on Main Street, Butera continues to draw inspiration for his signature Modern Mountain style from this very laid-back yet cosmopolitan city. These days, mountain home residents prefer a sleek, unfettered transitional style of Western living. By using dark rich woods, layers upon layers of various textures and patterns, faux horn, real hide and leathers mixed with metal, Barclay creates a luxurious, glamorous yet comfortable home. Sit back and enjoy the mountain view. Butera and his team of enthusiasts welcome you to embrace the Park City style; and wish all of you a very Safe, Healthy, and Happy Holiday Season.
